Ruder & Finn, Incorporated
Schedule of Activities on Behalf of Iran National Airlines and the Government of Iran
For Six Months Ended March 27, 1976

Ruder & Finn, Inc., on behalf of Iran National Airlines and the Government of Iran, carried out the following activities during the past six months:

1. Contacting various institutions and universities to arrange for speaking engagements for the Iranian Ambassador to the United Nations. However, no speeches were delivered since the Ambassador had no free time for speaking engagements. Initial contact included: Brown University, C & S Bank in Atlanta and the Iranian American Chamber of Commerce.
2. Met with various individuals who were familiar with Iran in an effort to develop a program of activities in the U.S. Meetings were held with businessmen, professors of Middle Eastern Studies, Iranians resident in the U.S., and the like.
3. A program was initiated to encourage various editors of magazines to visit Iran and preliminary contact was made with various business publications. This project was abandoned and no editors were sent to Iran by Ruder & Finn.
4. Advised Princess Ashraf's assistants on various speaking engagements that she was undertaking in the U.S. with universities regarding newspaper and magazine coverage of such speeches. Worked very briefly with university program directors to see if we could assist them in any way in developing press coverage. University carried these programs out on their own, however.
5. Arranged for several press meetings for Dr. Abdol Samii, head of the Imperial Medical Center of Iran. Meetings were held with Time Magazine, MD Magazine, Wall Street Journal, United Press International, Washington Post and The New York Times.
6. Arranged for two major speaking engagements for Princess Ashraf with the Commonwealth Club in California and Cornell University Nursing School. Both engagements were cancelled.

7. Also discussed possible appearances by Princess Ashraf with television producers regarding an appearance at the Emmy Awards. Project was rejected.
8. Discussed possibility of documentary on the Crown Prince with various television networks. Project was also rejected by client.
9. Discussed possibility of serialization of Shah of Iran's Book, "Mission for my Country" with various newspaper publishers throughout the country. Project was turned down by all publishers that were contacted.
10. Several engagements were also made with the Princess Ashraf for television appearances, such as the Today Show. Engagements were ultimately cancelled because of conflicting schedules.
11. Discussed possibility of by-lined articles by the Princess Ashraf with magazines and newspapers. Conversations were held with such publications as the New York Times, Atlantic, etc. Project was ultimately cancelled by client.
12. Conversations were held with various exhibitors in the U.S. in an effort to mount a photographic exhibit based on the Roloff Beny book, "Persia: Bridge of Turquoise." Project never went beyond the discussion stage with exhibitors.
13. Interview was arranged with the Princess Ashraf with Associated Press. Story appeared in December, 1975.
14. Submitted to Iran designs for new investment brochure to be distributed to the business community in the U.S.
15. R & F analyzed press coverage of Iran in the U.S. with an analysis of the kinds of stories that were appearing on Iran during the year.
16. Ruder & Finn also completed an attitude survey for Iran National Airlines interviewing the business community, editors, banks and selected individuals from the non-business community. The purpose of the study was to find out what these individuals and institutions think of business conditions in Iran, travel to Iran, tourism possibilities, etc.
17. Arrangements for the Princess Ashraf to meet women members of Congress to discuss the women's rights movement at a luncheon.
18. Discussed possibility of Princess Ashraf writing article for the Op-Ed Page of the New York Times. Article appeared in December.

19. Visited Iran National Airlines officials in February to discuss future work.
20. At the request of Iran National Airlines, we polled television directors and producers to determine what kinds of films they use from foreign countries -- particularly in the fields of tourism and investment.
21. On March 24, 1976 Ruder & Finn resigned from its contract with Iran National Airlines and the Government of Iran and has subsequently ceased all activity.
